Course: Successful Strategies to Implement Social-Emotional Learning in your Classroom

Credit Hours: Three credit hours

Course Format: Online

Instructor Name & Contact Information: Jim Place, 162 Strathmoor Crossing, Dayton, OH 45429, 937-602-0495

jimplaceservices@gmail.com

Course Description: This class allows students to pick presentations to watch that best fit their educational needs. The presenters include fellow educators who have implemented a character education lesson or strategy that they learned from a past Jim Place Services class. The presentations are concise and give educators the tool needed to implement a new social and emotional learning strategy in their classroom right away!

This course is designed for teachers, administrators, counselors, and coaches. The participants will be required to select six hours from the different presentations that are offered. The presentations will vary in grade level and topic including but not limited to PBIS, 21st century skills, student motivation, pedagogy and strategies, diversity, and general educational philosophy. Jim Place is the facilitator.

Attendance/Participation: Attendance is required for the live three hour virtual class.

Grading: Students will earn a Satisfactory (S) or Unsatisfactory (U) grade for this class. To earn a S students must successfully complete the work as outlined above..

Late Work: An assignment is late if it is not turned in at the place, date, and time established by the instructor. The instructor understands that at times there are extraordinary circumstances that occur and should be taken into consideration. These circumstances must be shared with the instructor before the due date (and not the night before) in order for any extension to be given.

Incomplete Grades: Incomplete Grades will be handled according to the University Catalog. If an incomplete grade is issued, the student, instructor, and Associate Dean will develop an agreement for the terms of the incomplete and sign it.

Student Conduct: Students are required to follow the policies set within the Student Code of Conduct at CSU Pueblo. This Code can be found on the Student Affairs website at <https://www.csupueblo.edu/student-affairs/student-conduct/index.html>. Students with questions regarding any guidelines within the Code should contact the Director of Student Conduct and Case Management at 719-549-2092.

Accommodations: If you have a documented disability that may impact your work in this class and for which you may require accommodations, please see the Disability Resource & Support Center (DRSC) as soon as possible to arrange services. The DRSC is located in LARC 169, and can be reached by phone (719-549-2648) and email (dro@csupueblo.edu).

Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty is any form of cheating that results in students giving or receiving unauthorized assistance in an academic exercise or receiving credit for work which is not their own. In cases of academic dishonesty, the instructor will follow protocol as identified by their department. Academic dishonesty is grounds for disciplinary action by both the instructor and the Director of Student Conduct and Community Standards. Any student found to have engaged in academic dishonesty may receive a failing grade for the work in question, a failing grade for the course, or any other lesser penalty which the instructor finds appropriate. To dispute an accusation of academic dishonesty, the student should first consult with the instructor. If the dispute remains unresolved, the student may then state their case to the department chair (or the dean if the department chair is the instructor of the course). A student may appeal a grade through the Academic Appeals Board, if eligible.

Academic dishonesty is a behavioral issue as well as an issue of academic performance. As such, it is considered an act of misconduct and is also subject to the University conduct process as defined in the CSU Pueblo Student Code of Conduct. Whether or not disciplinary action has been implemented by the faculty, a report of the infraction should be submitted to the Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards who may initiate additional disciplinary action. The decision by the Office of Student Conduct & Community Standards may be appealed through the process outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.

Mandatory Reporting: Colorado State University Pueblo is committed to maintaining respectful, safe, and nonthreatening educational, working, and living environments. As part of this commitment, and in order to comply with federal law, the University has adopted a Policy on Discrimination, Protected Class Harassment, Sexual Misconduct, Intimate Partner Violence, Stalking, & Retaliation. You can find information regarding this policy, how to report violations of this policy, and resources available to you, on the Office of Institutional Equity's website (www.csupueblo.edu/institutional equity).

Please familiarize yourself with the reporting requirements of this policy. Because faculty and staff at CSU Pueblo are "Responsible Employees," we have to report to the Director of the Office of Institutional Equity if you tell us that you were subjected to, or engaged in, any of the following acts: discrimination, protected class harassment, sexual misconduct, intimate partner violence, stalking, and retaliation.
